

CFB

Centre for Family Business

Date: 28th May 2014

Time: 3:30pm to 5:30pm

followed by a drinks reception

Venue: the Helix, Dublin City University Campus

The DCU Centre for Family Business cordially invites you and a guest to join

Norah Casey

Broadcaster and publisher with RTE and Newstalk and Chairwoman Harmonia

for the inaugural conference on

The Legacy Series – Engaging the Next Generation

RSVP: 16th May to familybusiness@dcu.ie or ph: (01) 700 8162

We are pleased to welcome the following family business professionals who will be participating in the DCU Centre for Family Business May 2014 panel discussion.

- Eamonn Quinn,
Chairman, Kelsius Limited
- Philip Mackeown,
Family Director, Musgrave Group
- Mike Glennon,
Joint Managing Director, Glennon Brothers
- Annie Flahavan,
Financial Controller, E. Flahavan & Sons Limited
- Dr. Eric Clinton,
Director, DCU Centre for Family Business

The DCU Centre for Family Business is delighted to announce the launch of 'The Legacy Series', a series of thought provoking seminars seeking to engage current and next generation family business members in exploring the requirements for transgenerational survival, growth and value creation.

The Legacy Series

---

Seminar 1-Engaging the Next Generation
28th May, 2014, the Helix (DCU)

- Balancing Family Tradition and Entrepreneurship
- Passing the Torch:
How to transfer ownership of the business personally and financially
- Family Employment and Compensation
- Defining family enterprise success, for both the family and the business
- Raising Balanced Children
- Establishing and living the values of the family

Kindly sponsored by:

Quinn Family Foundation

BENNETT  HOSPITALITY

Deloitte.

KPMG

pwc