

Regional Skills Supports During COVID-19 Crisis

Regional Skills
WEST
Partnerships for Skills

Has your company or team been affected by the crisis? We are here to support you during this difficult time. We are an independent team, funded by the Department of Education, to provide a FREE learning and talent development service for companies of any size, based in Galway, Mayo or Roscommon.

FREE and Discounted Online Training

Avail of a FREE skills analysis and customised training report to help with training your team to:

- Manage increased responsibilities due to the crisis
- Manage a surge in demand due to the crisis
- Pivot to online sales
- Transition to remote working
- Continued professional development for team members working from home – make use of the downtime to gain a competitive edge.

If you have had to let employees go, we can help you share free online courses and resources with them so they can continue their career development during the crisis – show them you still care.

Government Supports

- Information on available financial and practical government supports
- Raise issues affecting your business to inform government policy

Resolving Skills Issues

Working in partnership with companies and education and training providers to:

- Develop new online courses and webinars as needed during the crisis
- Address sectoral skills issues for sectors most impacted by the crisis
