Budget Briefing 2014: The 'Juicy Bits' for Business:

This would be an ideal opportunity for all our Synergy Global and Synergy Centre entrepreneurs; scaling, incubation, start up, pre-start, to mingle and learn, from each other and from the global wealth of financial expertise and experience of Crowe Horwath.

Speaker: Michael O'Scathail, Crowe Horwath

Michael O'Scathail is a Chartered Accountant and an Associate of the Irish Taxation Institute. He holds a Hons. B.Comm.Degree from NUI, Galway. Michael joined Crowe Horwath in 2014 after its merging with Newmarket Partnership whom Michael has been since 2004. Michael previously worked for KPMG's taxation practice for a number of years and he has extensive experience in Corporate, Personal and Capital Taxation as well as VAT and Stamp Duty. He has advised companies in the financial services, agribusiness, manufacturing and airline sectors as well as some of Ireland's best-known High Net Worth individuals. He also has experience of property transactions, company re-organisations and pensions planning. He regularly attends tax conferences and seminars staying up to date on all current tax issues.
