Roll of honour

Junior Category – 1st prize – Ballyroan Bakers Cookery Book, a business set up by 1st year student Dara Ward from Coláiste Éanna.

Intermediate category 1st prize – Accessoknit, who made attractive reversible handmade bags and purses and was made up of students Cara Ni Ronain and Grace Ni hlico of Coláiste de híde Tallaght.

Senior Category, 1st prize – Gael Saol from Coláiste de híde with their innovative and topical approach to building the profile of the Irish language through signage they have developed for shops and public places.

Additional winners

Junior Category:
Most Innovative: Team Time Machine set up by Mati Karski of Coláiste Éanna, Ballyroan.
2nd Place: Lipalicious set up by Ally Clarke, Megan Keyes, Grace Geraghty, Amy Nolan and Erin Lovett of Collinstown Park Community School, Clondalkin.
Best Display – Perfect Portions set up by Caoileann Nic Artain of Coláiste De Híde, Tallaght.
Social Media Award – Write off Bullying set up by Eoin Keogh of Greenhills College, Dublin 12.

Intermediate Category:
Most Innovative: JJR Comics set up by Jade Gorman, Jessica Burke and Rebecca Burke from Coláiste De Híde, Tallaght.
2nd Place: Mochua Mag set up by Agnes Cross, Leon O’Keefe, Andzelika Avizienyte, John Rooney and Dylan Rooney of Scoil Mochua, Clondalkin.
Best Display: Personalised Phone Cases set up by Funke Ajayi, Kenneth Rebuldad, Charisse Rebuldad of Killinarden Community School, Tallaght.
Social Media Award – Treelicious Sweets set up by Leah Fields of Killinarden Community School, Tallaght.

Senior Category:
Most Innovative: Shoe Guru set up by Ian Healy from Greenhills College, Dublin 12.
2nd Place: Memory Trees set up by Jodie Hennessy, Sophie Doolan and Ciara Maher from St Joseph’s College Lucan
Best Display: Trippy Textures set up by Molly Nolan, Ross Byrne, Ailis King and Amber Doyle from Old Bawn Community School, Tallaght.
Social Media Award – FunsieOnesies by Roisin Cullinan, Anna Kerr, Olivia Nash and Muireann McGinley from Our Lady’s in Terenure.

Special Merit Awards:
Sales Award: Swags R Us set up by Sharon Nkrumah, Temi Adefeko and Miriam Isichei from St Joseph’s, Lucan.
Corporate Social Responsibility: Because I’m A Girl set up by Chloe Gilsenan and Donna Reilly-Parish from St Joseph’s, Lucan.
Manufacturing/Craftsmanship: Splash Bands set up by Lauren Byrne, Lorna Doolan, Sarah Gettings and Stephanie O’Toole from Sancta Maria College, Rathfarnham.
Entrepreneurial Spirit: PiXie set up by Rebecca Meredith, Aimee Finegan, Megan Byrne Daly and Nicola Doyle from Colaiste Chillian, Clondalkin.
Health/Fitness Focus: Fitness 4 All set up by Eoghan Whelan and Cillian O’Riordan from Coláiste Éanna, Ballyroan.

The spirit of alive and well

The Institute of Technology was hopping with activity as it celebrated student enterprise awards.

WELL DONE: Xally Clarke, Megan Keyes, Grace Geraghty, Amy Nolan, Erin Lovett - Lipalicious - Collinstown Park CC with Martin Nolan, IT Tallaght

EAGER: John Madu (rear) Aggie Cross and Tony McDonagh of Mochua Mag, Scoil Mochua

DELICIOUS: Ciara Dunne, Jenny Egan and Eppie Van Egeraat of Fairplay Hot Chocolate (Our Lady’s Terenure)

ON THE SCENT: Shauna Donnelly and Anna Bruce of Floral Bowtique, St Colmcille’s CS

WAXING LyrICAL: Ciara Pender and Nicole Kavanagh of Cool Candles (Coláiste de híde)