Mentor: Michael McGill,

Michael is a retired Customs Officer, based in Dublin who has worked in the Irish Customs Service for over 42 years. While employed in the Irish Customs he has developed a deep knowledge of all Customs procedures and worked in all areas of customs including trade facilitation, investigations, and law enforcement. He has provided expert advice to Irish business on a variety of Customs issues. He now has a particular focus on providing advice to importers and exporters on Brexit related matters and on AEO programmes.

These customs consultancy clinics provide you with the opportunity to meet with a customs consultant to discuss the particular circumstances for your business with regard to the documentary and procedural requirements that need to be put in place to ensure that your business can continue to trade with the UK post Brexit. Clients wishing to avail of the one-to-one clinics would also benefit from attending a customs workshop to gain an understanding of the customs procedure in general. Please check out dates for workshops on <https://www.localenterprise.ie/Wicklow/Training-Events/>

If you are a trader who imports / exports goods into / out of the European Union you will need an Economic Operators Registration and Identification (EORI) Number.
