

Panelto Foods is a leading Irish bakery specializing in par baked frozen artisan breads. We produce at our state-of-the-art modern facility based in Longford.

Our breads are sold throughout the supermarket sector in the UK and Ireland. Our master bakers have visited every corner of Italy, learning age-old "Biga" techniques and gathering traditional recipes from the world's best artisan bakeries. It's what gives our bread its uniquely soft, bouncy texture and distinctive open crumb structure.

If you want to know what sets our bread apart, the difference is all in the bread!
